Welcome to the world of surely delightful dolls: this is Soldier! This story is an entire story to "Hill on Market" about the main characters - Kyoji and Magenta - first night living together! It's one of my first revised Soldier's delightful book (though it seems that I've come to be thought of as a semi-Soldiermagenta for the past years) there were others about me working and playing with other clothes to work! I never thought that I'd like these characters as much. I'd put them in a desktop. I think the one I like is Magenta. It's hard to draw a half-grown doll in this and not a real character! It's one word to try drawing her as an adult who's grown taller than Kyoji and married, but the growing body has been.

Since I started drawing for "Warrior", the number of fans who are interested seems to have increased a lot (though her original fan base was also, on average, part of the older crowd). I've also gotten letters from gaymen... It was quite exciting. It seems that the majority of them get off on my manga. Naturally, I draw my manga with the intention of stimulating the readers to do very grateful and happy! The idea for drawing a desktop are stricter than the most (I?) as the readers of "Warrior" might find my stories unexciting but I hope that this book can be used somehow for everyone's "love"!

So there, see you next time. Let's meet again in my next work. Thank you for your purchase! Follow to hear your impressions of it!
